FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Past Chair William Griswold Honored For His Service

RADM Sirois, Bill Griswold and Gene Seibert

Manassas, VA - The United States Coast Guard Auxiliary honored former National Safe Boating Council Chairman (NSBC) William Griswold in the performance of duty as Auxiliary Liaison to the NSBC from September 1997 to September 2005. His commitment to boating safety and enthusiasm for his work has made him an essential contributor to both organizations.

Mr. Griswold's service to the NSBC began in 1997 when he became a member of the Board of Directors. Since that time he has become an invaluable member of the NSBC Board of Directors and Executive Board, becoming involved in projects such as the NSBC Recreational Boating Safety Grant program, the Outboard Motor Corporation Foundation, the International Boating and Water Safety Summit and the North American Safe Boating Campaign. In addition, he has helped to cultivate and expand upon many of the NSBC and Auxiliary partnerships with other boating and water safety organizations. He has served as a representative of the NSBC in many capacities, lending his knowledge and expertise to other organizations for the betterment of boating safety.

The service Mr. Griswold has provided to the NSBC, USCG Auxiliary, and many other organizations has contributed significantly to the development and enhancement of recreational boating safety. His outstanding contribution and dedicated service are greatly appreciated.
